产品优势/PRODUCT ADVANTAGES

1. The lifting platform has strong controllability and simple self-scissor operation. It can also meet the needs of customers at different heights. It stops immediately after pressing, which promotes the rapid and smooth completion of high-altitude operations.
2. It can reduce noise during operation, increase the clearance inside the platform, and make the transmission more stable and the mechanism vibration smaller.
3. The whole machine is designed in an integrated manner, with a built-in battery power supply, which can meet the needs of customers in different working conditions.
